

Opening Night
Thursday Sept. 22

6:30 pm

at the

Jepson Center for the Arts
With the Award-Winning Film

A Sea Change

plus

An Ocean of Truth

In Deep

The Krill is Gone

With near unanimity, scientists now agree that burning fossil fuels is fundamentally changing ocean chemistry—what does it mean for marine creatures, for humans?

In conjunction,
a photography exhibit

Water Images

by Sal Lopes

The evening is brought to you by the Telfair Museum – Jepson Center for the Arts and Mrs. Robert O. Levitt.

Friday Sept. 23

6:30 pm

at SCAD's Trustees Theater
on Broughton Street

Folksinger Bob Zentz
salutes our ocean planet

An Ocean of Truth

The Bag vs. The Bay

The Majestic Plastic Bag

Plastic in the Pacific

Bag It

In the Wake of Giants

We are filling our oceans with trash, even the largest animals suffer from the mess.

Here's what we can do collectively and individually to make it better.

The evening brought to you by the Savannah Presbytery, the Skidaway Marine Science Foundation in conjunction with BLUE Ocean Film Festival, San Francisco Ocean Film Festival.

Saturday Sept. 24

10 am, 1 & 3 pm

The Children's Ocean Film Festival

Films shown at the Tybee Island Marine
Science Center

Noon - 4 pm

at SCAD's Trustees Theater
on Broughton Street

Emerging Filmmakers compete for the Dr. Robert O. Levitt Award for Best Student environmental documentary.

An Ocean of Truth
Once Upon a Tide

Winning Short Films from the Ocean Science Bowl plus SCAD Student Films

The afternoon brought to you by the Savannah College of Art and Design and the Savannah Ocean Exchange.